FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

DANTZICK, AUGUST 1.

ON Sunday laſt we received here from Berlin, the good news that his Pruſſian Majeſty exacted not for the preſent the 75,000 ducats, which remained unpaid, of the contribution; and that as ſoon as the magiſtrates ſhould have publiſhed the edict concerning the liberty which the Pruſſians have of levying recruits in this city, the King's troops ſhould retire. The edict was accordingly publiſhed and affixed on all the gates; and in the afternoon one diviſion of Pruſſian huſſars marched from Langefurth towards Werder; from whence the whole corps will retire to-morrow to their ancient quarters.

TRIESTE, July 28. Advices from the Archipelago, on which we can depend, ſay, that the Turkiſh ſquadron, conſiſting of ſixteen ſhips of the line, four xebecks and two galleys, was, on the 6th, at the entrance into the gulf of Napoli di Romania: That the Ruſſian fleet, compoſed of one three-decker, ſeven of the line, and eight ſmaller veſſels, was but forty miles from it; but that the north wind having driven them to a greater diſtance, the Ottoman fleet availed itſelf of that opportunity to retire to Negropont, and that of the Ruſſians to the Morea. Five days before, the Turks being deſirous to get out of the gulf of Romania, the two fleets canonaded each other, but without much hurt.

Letters ſince received ſpeak of a more deciſive engagement, after which the Captain Pacha had fled with his fleet under the cannon of Napoli, and that of General Orlow had retired to Sidra. Theſe advices add, that the Ruſſians having made a deſcent had demoliſhed at Napoli two forts and ſome magazines of wood.

HAGUE, AUGUST 28. Prince Gallitzin, Envoy Extraordinary from her Imperial Majeſty of Ruſſia, has juſt received a courier, with a confirmation of the victory which the army, commanded by General Count Romanzoff, gained over the Turks the 1ſt of this month. The battle is ſaid to have been fought between the villages of Kalbut and Jalput, near the mouth of the Pruth. Count Romanzoff having received advice that the Grand Vizir had paſſed the Danube on the bridge at Iſaccia, on the 27th of July, at the head of 150,000 men, with an intent of coming to an engagement, in order to anticipate his deſign, detached Prince Repnin with a body of 14,000 men towards the Danube, with orders to occupy the heights between that river and the brook Cabul. The Turks fell into the ſnare, and imagining they had only that body of the Ruſſians to encounter, advanced boldly to give battle. In the mean time Count Romanzoff put his whole army in motion, and traverſing the plains took the enemy in the rear, while Prince Repnin attacked them in front. This manœuvre gave the Ruſſian army ſo greatly the advantage, that the Turks, finding themſelves between two fires, gave way, and endeavoured to repaſs the Danube on the ſame bridge on which they had paſſed three days before. It is added, that the Grand Vizir, fearing to be purſued by the Ruſſians, had ſacrificed a part of his army to ſave the main body, and with that view had cauſed the bridge at Iſaccia to be broken down. This glorious action coſt the Ruſſians only 1200 men, among whom were 18 officers killed, and 15 wounded. The loſs of the Turks is ſaid to be much greater, and when the courier ſet out, it was eſtimated at 3000 killed upon the field of battle, four Bachas, and 6000 men made priſoners; beſides 143 pieces of cannon taken, 40 ſtandards and colours, the enemy's whole camp, with all their proviſions, ammunition, and 7000 carriages. The Ruſſians are at preſent maſters of the banks of the Danube, and have garriſoned the caſtle, which commands the principal bridge over that river.

ALTENA, AUGUST 24. By letters from Copenhagen we are aſſured, that they have diſcovered, within theſe few days, a deſign to ſet fire to the palace, by means of a packet of combuſtibles which had been laid in a place where it had been lighted by a match, but by great good fortune it had not taken fire, as the match went out too ſoon. No diſcovery has yet been made of this enormous attempt.

LEMBERG, AUGUST 17. The letters which we have received from the army of Count Romanzoff ſince the laſt victory, of the firſt inſtant, adviſe, that Lieutenant-General Prince de Repnin hath taken poſſeſſion of Iſmailou, and General de Bawr of Ibrahilou, towns ſituated on the Danube: Theſe conqueſts as they cover Wallachia and Moldavia, render the Ruſſians maſters of the Danube, in ſuch a manner that the Turks will not eaſily paſs it. We expect with impatience a confirmation of theſe important advices.

LEMBERG, AUGUST 19. We have this moment received the important news, that the Chan of the Tartars, who is ſtill at the head of 60,000 men, finding himſelf ſo blocked up, and cloſely preſſed by the Ruſſians, hath written to General Count de Romanzoff, with an offer that he will no longer bear arms againſt the Ruſſians during the preſent war, if he will permit him to retire freely with all his men; the Ruſſian General replied, that he could not grant his demand except on condition, that he will render homage to her Majeſty the Empreſs of all the Ruſſias.

From the FRONTIERS of POLAND, AUGUST 24. Among the booty, which the Ruſſians took from the Grand Vizir on the 1ſt of Auguſt, beſides effects to the value of 200,000 roubles, they found two coffers filled with ſmall aigrettes of feathers, which the Grand Vizir intended to have diſtributed among the moſt valiant of his people after the victory; theſe the Ruſſian officers now do themſelves the honour to wear.

WARSAW, AUGUST 18. The Grand Vizir's military cheſt is fallen into the hands of the Ruſſians. The number of oxen that have been taken amounts to 14,000; and beſides great ſtore of all neceſſaries, the Ruſſians found in the enemies camp many articles of luxury, amongſt them ſome delicious muſcadine grapes, which are ſcarcely known in the north.

A report prevails here, that the Venetians have reſolved not only to make themſelves maſters of the Morea, but alſo of all the iſles formerly belonging to them, at preſent poſſeſſed by the Turks.

PARIS, AUGUST 31. We have a ſtrong report that the parliament of Beſancon is baniſhed to Vezoul; and that an arret of the parliament of Metz has been eraſed by the Marſhal d'Armentieres, at the head of eight companies of grenadiers.

FRONTIERS OF ITALY, AUGUST 24. Admiral Elphinſtone, who, after the defeat of the Ottoman ſquadron, ſailed to block up the Dardanelles, has taken twelve Ragouſan, and two French veſſels laden with proviſion and ammunition for the Captain Pacha. As a ſquadron of Ruſſian ſhips are alſo cruiſing between the iſles of Candy and Cerigo, the Ruſſians are maſters of all the Archipelago.

VIENNA, AUGUST 25. The Emperor ſet out the day before yeſterday for the camp in Moravia, where he is to meet the King of Pruſſia on the 3d of September. The camp in that province conſiſts of thirty-ſeven battalions and eighteen ſquadrons.

ST. PETERSBURGH, AUGUST 10. N. S. The Empreſs has created General Romanzoff a knight of St. George, of the firſt claſs; and he is as yet the only one. General Bawr and three or four more are made knights of the ſecond, and it is ſaid a great many others are received into the two lower claſſes.

COPENHAGEN, AUGUST 28. Count Moltke, Captain-Lieutenant in the Marine, and Adjutant-General to the King, is arrived here, after a journey of nine days from Toulon to Altona. This officer, who was diſpatched expreſs by Commodore Kaas, has brought word, that the Daniſh ſquadron, after having been driven from before Algiers by a ſtorm, had again returned thither; but that they were again obliged to leave it, not only on account of the ſickneſs on board their ſquadron, but for want of warlike ſtores, and becauſe the bomb veſſels, which were too ſmall, had greatly ſuffered; but that Commodore Kaas had left two frigates to cruize before that port. This officer has farther aſked a reinforcement of two ſhips of war, and a bomb veſſel, which has been granted, and we are embarking a great quantity of cannon and ſtores on the Holm for that purpoſe.

TOULON, AUGUST 10. The La Fleche man of war, ſtationed as a cruizer on the coaſt of Corſica, has juſt brought in fifty-one Corſicans, who continued in arms, among whom is one of their chiefs, named Benedetto. Scarce a packet-boat arrives without bringing ſome of them, who are committed to the Great Tower, from whence they are ſent to the Iſle of Rhe, in order to their being tranſported to our American iſlands. It is certain, if we go on at the ſame rate as for ſome time paſt, that Corſica, in a few years, muſt be entirely drained of its natives. No greater regard is paid to the clergy than the laity, many of the former having been brought hither, who are diſtributed in different provinces in this kingdom, to break their national ſpirit.

WARSAW, AUGUST 28. The Tartars of Belgorod and Sediſſauſky, whoſe number is ſaid to amount to 100,000, have ſolicited Count Panin's permiſſion to retire, promiſing not to act any more againſt Ruſſia during the preſent war; and that General has given them nearly the ſame anſwer as Count Romanzoff did the Kan of Crimea.

FROM THE VISTULA, AUGUST 29. The Kan of Crimea finding the Count de Romanzoff inflexibly firm in his conditions, has ſent his propoſals of accommodation immediately to the court of Peterſburgh.

By freſh advices from the Ruſſian army we learn, that General Repnin has made 3000 Turks priſoners at Iſmanilow, and taken 30 pieces of cannon.

NAPLES, AUGUST 14. There was another earthquake at Meſſina, on the 22d ult. which has done conſiderable damage.

CONSTANTINOPLE, AUGUST 3. If we credit reports all our fleet, one ſhip excepted, has either been taken or deſtroyed by the Ruſſians. But as the Ruſſians have ſuffered greatly, we think they will not be able to force the Straits of the Dardanelles, which is well provided with batteries, that have been lately put in a good ſtate of defence. Rhad... with five or ſix other ſhips which are here, and ſome more which we are getting ready, are to be ſent to defend the entry of the Straits. What we are moſt in fear of is a want of proviſions, ſeveral proviſion veſſels having fallen into the hands of the Ruſſians.

SMYRNA, JULY 19. The government has laid an embargo on all ſhips in this port; and to hinder the Ruſſians from entering, we have ſunk no leſs than ſix Turkiſh, two French, and two Ragouſan veſſels.

VENICE, AUGUST 25. The Ruſſian fleet reigns without controul in the Archipelago, ſince the defeat of the Turkiſh fleet. Commodore Elphinſtone has actually blocked up the Dardanelles; and letters from Corfu aſſert, that part of his fleet had actually paſſed them. Be that as it may, Conſtantinople muſt be in a bad ſituation, as all proviſion ſhips which come that way are ſtopped by this fleet, and another fleet in the Black Sea will prevent their receiving any from thence. The Ruſſians are raiſing contributions in the Archipelago iſles, Mytilene being taxed at 150,000 piaſtres.

ALTONA, SEPTEMBER 7. The King of Pruſſia has formed a chain of his troops, which reach from the frontiers of Pruſſia to thoſe of Lithuania. General Belling, who has the command of them, has orders to put to death, without diſtinction of birth or quality all perſons who ſhall enter the dominions of his Majeſty from Poland, without paſſports of health for them and their equipage, and that execution ſhall be immediately upon the ſpot where they are diſcovered.

NAPLES, AUGUST 21. Mount Veſuvius has this week thrown out great quantities of ſmoke and fire, by which irruption the neighbourhood of Tour du Grec has had its vineyards entirely deſtroyed.

We have happily juſt diſcovered a plot formed by 200 ſoldiers in our garriſon, who had laid a ſcheme to pillage the principal houſes in this city, under favour of the night, whilſt the nobility, &c. were at the ſpectacle given on the anniverſary of the birth of the Queen.

HAMBURGH, SEPTEMBER 14. By letters from Warſaw, we have advice, that Prince Galitzin had beat the Confederates, and taken all their cannon, baggage, and horſes. And further, they had received advice by expreſs from Count Panin, that the Tartars of Beſſarabia had ſubmitted to the dominion of the Empreſs, on condition that they ſhould be allowed to chuſe their own Chan, or Chief. The plague ſo far from ceaſing, actually rages within 24 miles of Warſaw.

The Ruſſians continue the ſiege of Bender with great vigour, and as the Tartars in the neighbourhood have ſubmitted to Count Panin, it is thought it muſt ſoon ſurrender.

MARSEILLES, AUGUST 31. The entire defeat of the Turkiſh fleet, and the ſtopping the return of our ſhips from the Levant, joined to the invaſion and deva ſtations in the Morea, have cauſed many conſiderable bankruptcies here.

LEGHORN, SEPTEMBER 7. The Ruſſian ſquadron, which is cruizing off Tenedos, has taken 40 veſſels for Conſtantinople, many with proviſions, and others with moſt valuable Aſiatic and African effects. The commanders of theſe veſſels knew not of the defeat of the Turkiſh fleet.

WARSAW, SEPTEMBER 9. The King has been indiſpoſed for ſome days. The plague makes great ravages in Little Poland, and has ſhewn itſelf at Jaroſlau and Lublin. It is aſſerted here, that Bender is taken by the Ruſſians, who found in the place 166 pieces of cannon, and that the ſon of the Chan of the Tartars is among the priſoners.

VENICE, SEPTEMBER 10. We learn from Madrid, that couriers are continually paſſing between that court and Portugal, and that councils are frequently held at both courts, but the buſineſs carrying on is kept in profound ſecrecy.

PARIS, SEPTEMBER 21. If we may credit the reports current, the Ruſſians have forced the Straits of the Dardanelles with little loſs; their fleet was before Conſtantinople, and the Grand Signior, with his treaſure and ſeraglio, had retired to Aſia Minor.

TUNIS, MAY 30. On the 15th inſtant arrived in this bay a French frigate and two large xebeques. The commodore, after receiving on board the French conſul and his family, with ſome French merchants, in the night ordered all the French veſſels in the port to come out under his guns; which being effected, he ſent the two xebequet to Portafarina, to block up the Tuniſine cruizers which were there ready for ſea. The next day the commodore ſent to inform the Bey, that he expected a ſquadron of men of war, bombs, &c. from Toulon, to demand ſatisfaction for ſundry injuries and inſults offered to the French nation by this government. The Bey has taken every proper meaſure to prevent any inſult from being offered to the Conſulary houſes, by placing guards at their ſeveral doors.

PETERSBURGH, AUGUST 31. The court has publiſhed this day a detail of the glorious victory gained by Count Romanzoff on the firſt of this month over the Grand Vizir. This relation is very full, containing nineteen pages in quarto. It appears that the Turks in this battle loſt forty thouſand men without reckoning two thouſand priſoners, of whom the greateſt number are officers of rank. Our loſs on this occaſion, only amounts to three hundred and fifty-three killed, and five hundred and fifty wounded, as well officers as private men. The booty taken in the field of battle, and at Ismail, conſiſts of fifty-three pair of colours, two horſe-tails, two ſtandards, four pair of kettle-drums, two hundred and three pieces of heavy cannon, and an innumerable quantity of baggage, tents, carts of ammunition, proviſions, &c. The priſoners declare the Ottoman army conſiſted of fifty thouſand infantry, and a hundred thouſand horſe, being the flower of the Turkiſh troops, commanded by their moſt celebrated officers. Prince Repnin in the expedition to Iſmail killed a thouſand Turks, and made nine hundred and ſeventy-two priſoners. The troops encamped round that fortreſs amounted to twenty thouſand men.

WARSAW, SEPTEMBER 12. The Ruſſian army is divided into ſeveral bodies, in order the more eaſily to go different ways in purſuit of the enemy, which has been diſperſed ever ſince the glorious day of the firſt of Auguſt. The army of the Grand Vizir is not in a condition to repaſs the Danube, and there is ſuch a miſunderſtanding between the troops, the Aſiaticks being determined not to obey European Baſhaws, that they frequently fight with each other.

ROTTERDAM, SEPTEMBER 25. All the letters which have been received here from Smyrna, ſay, that every thing was quiet in that city; and that the embargo was taken off all the foreign ſhips.

TUNIS, AUGUST 13. On the 21ſt of June, the French admiral arrived in this bay with a ſquadron of two ſhips of the line, three frigates, two barques, and two bombs; with ſeveral row-galleys belonging to Malta, and under the grand maſter's colours. After treating ſeveral days with the Bey, without receiving the ſatisfaction demanded, the admiral ordered all the French merchants, who ſtill remained aſhore, to repair on board: And, on their application to the Bey for permiſſion, it was immediately granted. Accordingly, having regiſtered all the goods and effects remaining in their houſes and magazines, and ſealed their doors, they all embarked without the leaſt inſult from the populace. On the 26th of June, the admiral denounced war againſt this regency; and on the 29th, the whole ſquadron ſailed for Bizerta, except one frigate, and two row-galleys, which were left to block up this port, and to prevent all ſhips, of whatever nation, from coming in. On the 3d of July, they commenced their operations at Bizerta, by bombarding that city. The Bey did not make any public declaration of war, but kept the French colours flying on the Conſulary houſe until the 5th of July, two days after the bombardment commenced at Bizerta; when he gave orders to ſtrike the colours, and to take down the flag-ſtaff, which was done with great decency. From Bizerta the ſquadron proceeded to Suſa, which place they are now bombarding. They go on very ſlowly with their operations. It is ſaid they will go from Suſa to Monaſter, and from thence to Portafarina, and leave the Goletta caſtles, at the harbour of Tunis, for the laſt ſtroke.

PARIS, SEPTEMBER 19. Conſiderable armaments are making at our ports, and eſpecially at Toulon, but they are ſuch as are conſidered only as neceſſary precautions under the preſent circumſtances, when all the maritime powers are putting their naval forces upon a reſpectable footing. It is ſaid, that the ſquadron ſent to Tunis, has had the deſired effect; the Bey having agreed to the conditions required of him. Three regiments are ready to embark upon the firſt notice for Corſica. The laſt letters from that iſland adviſe, that M. de Marbeuf was marching towards the mountains, in order to root up thoſe who have taken refuge there, and whoſe exceſſes rather increaſe than diminiſh.

LONDON, OCTOBER 1.

THE Liverpool man of war brings an account, that there ſailed along with her out of Cadiz harbour three Spaniſh men of war, with ſix tranſports, having on board 1000 men, ſuppoſed to be deſtined to reinforce the garriſon of the Havana.

The following particulars relative to the poſſeſſion taken of Falkland's Iſland by the Spaniards, are ſaid to be authentic: When the Spaniſh fleet arrived at Port-Egmont, the commanding officer immediately ordered the place to be evacuated: To which our commander replied, that his orders were to maintain the place for the King his maſter, and that he would defend it. The Spaniſh officer repreſented to him, how vain reſiſtance would be to ſuch a ſuperior force, and that it might be the occaſion of much bloodſhed, which he wiſhed to avoid. After ſome altercation, it was agreed between the two commanding officers that the Spaniards ſhould fire over the heads of our people, which was intended to be looked upon as a commencement of hoſtilities, that we ſhould return the compliment in the ſame manner, and then ſtrike the Engliſh colours, all which was accordingly done.

On Saturday came on at Guildhall the election of a Lord-Mayor of this city for the year enſuing; when the following aldermen were ſucceſſively put in nomination, viz. Sir Henry Bankes, Braſs Croſby, Eſq; Richard Peers, Eſq; James Naſh, Eſq; Sir James Eſdaile, Thomas Halifax, Eſq; John Shakeſpeare, Eſq; Brackley Kennet, Eſq; James Townſend, Eſq; and John Sawbridge, Eſq; every one of theſe names were received with tokens of diſlike, except thoſe of Braſs Croſby, James Townſend, and John Sawbridge, Eſqrs. who received uncommon marks of applauſe. Mr. Croſby and Mr. Townſend had almoſt every hand in the hall held up for them, and Mr. Sawbridge was complimented by clapping. The Sheriffs then retired, and in about a quarter of an hour afterwards the Lord-Mayor and Aldermen returned, and proclaimed the election to light upon Braſs Croſby, Eſq; which was received with univerſal applauſe. The Lord-Mayor, and Lord-Mayor elect, returned to the manſion-houſe in the ſtate-coach, where an elegant entertainment was provided, at which were preſent, Aldermen Stephenſon, Kite, Turner, Peers, Shakeſpeare, Halifax, Kennet, Eſdaile, Wilkes, Townſend, Sawbridge, Roſſiter, Oliver, and the two Sheriffs.

It was reported this morning, that the anſwer given to our meſſenger from the Spaniſh court was; "that we might do as we pleaſed, as they were ready for us at any time."

On Wednesday last Captain Holwell and Captain Elliott received their commissions at the admiralty-office, for the Prince of Wales and Portland, and on Thursday had the honour of kissing his Majesty's hand. The former is the gentleman that struck the Frenchman's pendant in the Downs, and the latter is the gentleman that cured Thurot of the tooth-ach.

OCTOBER 2. Yesterday the common cryer of the city read at the Royal Exchange his Majesty's proclamation, offering to such seamen who shall voluntarily enter into his service, a bounty of thirty shillings.

It is said, that so many sailors have lately entered that there is at present very little occasion for pressing.

It is said that a city officer has addressed a letter to the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and another inclosed to be read to the court of Aldermen the next court-day, intimating, that as his late conduct with regard to his going up to St. James's with the petition, address, and remonstrance, was so much disapproved of by the majority of the court of common council, and that as he was not allowed the liberty of acting agreeably to his conscience, he therefore was determined to resign, unless, for the future, he could have the liberty of doing the duties of his office without being called to account upon every trifling matter found fault with by a few intemperate partizans.

Advices from Leghorn, received yesterday, mention that the Russian squadron had battered, for five days, the fortification at the entrance of the Dardanelles, but that a violent storm had oblized them to retire.

One would think it impossible, that a nation which pretends to be civilized, should take pleasure in murdering their fellow-creatures, under the pretence of converting them to the true religion; yet we are informed, by a Spanish author, of credit, that his barbarous countrymen destroyed no less than 40 millions of the poor Americans in their conquest of Peru and Mexico.

A correspondent tells us, had the advice of the Earl of Chatham, grounded on the most just and proper motives, and owing to certain intelligence, been listened to in the year 1761, Spain had never dared to insult this country, by offering indignities to the British flag, and dispossessing us of the Falkland island.

The politicians who frequent the Smyrna, are of opinion that, if Great-Britain goes to war, it will certainly be on account of something of greater importance than Falkland island, though the seizing of that is a great affront, and may be made the ostensible pretence for commencing hostilities.

OCTOBER 3. According to the last letters from Constantinople, the Divan were of opinion, that as the Grand Vizir had yet a sufficient army, the Grand Signior ought to put himself at the head of his troops, in order to inspire them, by his presence, with an ardour which might probably give a turn to affairs. By the same accounts, twelve caravelles, some saiques, and a great number of soldiers, had just been dispatched to the Dardanelles. Some propositions of peace, we are told at the same time, had been made on the part of a mediating power, which the Ottoman ministry seemed inclinable to listen to, but the Grand Signior absolutely refused to hear them mentioned.

The Russian squadron has taken 80 vessels, escorted by four ships from Cairo, and richly laden with tribute from Syria and Egypt. Several more ships from the ports of Asia and Africa, being ignorant of the destruction of the Ottoman fleet, have likewise fallen into the hands of the Russians.

Yesterday it was reported, that an account from Madrid arrived on Monday, the particulars of which have not as yet transpired; however, they are said to be pacific: And that every reasonable restitution shall be forthwith made to the British court. In consequence of the above, stocks rose, from ten o'clock on Monday morning to one, two and a half per cent; and got up one per cent yesterday. Another account says, a great personage has expressed the greatest uneasiness till the return of a messenger from a southern court, which may serve to shew how really critical and dubious public affairs are at present.

The French and Spaniards are so greatly in want of ship-timber, that great quantities of oak are daily importing from Holland, Hamburgh, and the Baltic, exclusive of the supplies received from the territories of the Pope.

The divisions of marines are now fully compleated at the capital out ports, from which draughts are made for every ship of war, as soon as put in commission.

Letters from Dublin mention, that orders have been received there from England, for recruiting the land forces on that establishment to their full compliment of men.

A correspondent informs us, that the business which carried over a great lawyer to Ireland, was to settle certain preliminaries, in consequence of which, it is probable that Lord Lifford will be declared Lord High Chancellor of Great-Britain in a very short time.

Monday sailed from the Downs the Russian fleet, with all their transports, bound for the Mediterranean.

OCTOBER 4. A noble peer, of the first character and distinction, who is of the cabinet, and whose information is as good, and his experience in politics as great, as any man's in this kingdom, offered the other day, in a very public company, that if any one would lay him down an hundred guineas, he would give him a thousand, if there was a war between us and Spain, or France, within the compass of two years.

Lord Camden came to town yesterday, from Camden place.

A letter received on Tuesday, by a merchant of this city, brought by the Elizabeth, Capt. Prefwick, who is arrived in the river from Petersburg, gives the following account: That several line of battle ships, lately built upon a new construction, have taken in their stores for nine months, being destined for the Black Sea, and have got on board their compliment of men, amongst which are many Foreigners, who have entered volunteers, in hopes of sharing the spoils of the enemy.

This morning his Excellency the Spanish Ambassador had a long conference with Lord Weymouth, on the subject of advices received from the court of Madrid.

Extract of a letter from Portsmouth, October 3.

"Arrived at St. Helen's, the Northern Eagle, a Russian frigate, and in the evening she sailed to join their fleet, which was out in the offing, with a fair wind.

"Came into harbour to dock, the Favourite sloop of war, Capt. Maltby. Sailed out of the harbour to Spithead, the St. Antonio, of 64 guns, Capt. Gayton. The Ajax and Achilles are to go out to-morrow. We expect to have a fleet of 25 sail of the line at Spithead before this month is out, the ships fitting out at other ports being ordered hither."

PLYMOUTH, September 28. The press-warrants are stopped here for the present; for, since the bounty has been offered by his Majesty, such a number of able sailors daily enter that there is no occasion to make use of that method of manning his fleet.

The Lively frigate, Captain Fanshawe, is come here to procure sailors for his Majesty's service, and the magistrates and society of merchants of this city, in order to promote the public service, have this day voted a premium of twenty shillings, to every sailor that shall enter voluntarily with Capt. Fanshawe, besides the bounty of thirty shillings allowed by government: This encourages the sailors to offer themselves freely, and the disagreeable service of impressing is avoided.

For the ENTERTAINMENT of all Lovers of ART and INGENUITY.

On TUESDAY and FRIDAY EVENINGS,

At Mr. HAWES's, in MARKET-SQUARE,

BY THE CELEBRATED SHAGHNUSSY, & Co.

WILL BE EXHIBITED,

The following MEDLEY of

SURPRISING PERFORMANCES,

To greater ADMIRATION

Than ever hitherto attempted in this Part of the World.

FIRST, he commences with a Prologue adapted to the Performance.---Secondly, he seems to cause a most wonderful and surprising Production of Fruit, with other Exhibitions, to appear upon a Table, in the Space of five Moments, appearing as natural as if they had grown upon the Trees.---Thirdly, he devours several Combustibles, in a Blaze, with as much Ease as Ladies drink Tea.---Fourthly, he drinks a Quantity of Liquor, to drive it down, which again he produces, in Streams, from several Parts of his Body, to Admiration. He then proceeds to his surprising Performance with curious Eggs, Money, and Cards, particularly causing the Cards to stick to the Ceiling of the Room, or other convenient Parts, and makes every Card that is called for by the Spectators fly down at the Word of Command. He causes them to rise from the Table as though they were alive, and makes them jump and fly about like so many living Birds. He changes the Colour of Cards from red to black, or black to red, to the Admiration of the Beholders. He likewise in his Performance represents, to such as require it, the Shape and Form of the Person allotted for their Spark or Mistress; and discovers the Lady who shall happen to be first married in the Company. There will be added, by Means of a Magic Lanthorn, several curious moving Machines, representing Ladies and Gentlemen dancing Pashies and Country Dances; and a Piece of moving Machinery, representing their Majesties King GEORGE, Queen CHARLOTTE, and all the ROYAL FAMILY. Also a famous Italian moving Landscape, representing One Hundred Figures, each near six Feet high, and the Army going thro' their Exercise by the Word of Command; with the Humours of Dr. FAUSTUS, and several other diverting Subjects too tedious to enumerate. An Address to Every Body, not aimed at Any Body, will then be humourously performed by Mr. SHAGHNUSSY, in the Character of No Body.

Between the several Acts of the above Performance, will be introduced the following DANCES, by Mr. GODWIN, viz. A Hornpipe---A Comic Dance, called the Pitchfork---The drunken Peasant; Peasant, Mr. GODWIN.---Clown, incident to the Dances, by Mr. DAWSON.

MUSIC in the Intervals, viz. Violin, by Mr. HYATT---German Flute, by Mr. LAUNCE. The Whole to conclude with an Epilogue.

 Mr. SHAGHNUSSY, far from presuming to assert to the Public that the wonderful Things by him performed are real Miracles, frankly acknowledges that they are only ingeniously and deceptively executed; and the Consulters of Nature, or Sons of Reason, he is well assured, expect no other. He, however, engages that every Part shall be performed with the greatest Nicety, and according to his Merits hopes for Encouragement from every

PHILOTECHNUS.

[The following VERSES, on the Death of the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD, are inserted in this Paper, in order to oblige the Writer of them.]

Mr. CROUCH,

It was but reasonable to suppose that among the numerous Friends of the late Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD, in this Place, some public Notice wou'd have been taken of his Decease, by the People of Charles-Town, as well as those of Boston: But since Nothing of this Kind has yet appear'd, the inclosed Lines offer themselves, provided you have none better to supply their Place; which tho' they have no Claim to Poetry, yet evince the Writer not to be wholly unsensible of that almost universal Loss sustained by the Translation of so every Way an extraordinary Man, from these dull sinful Regions, to the Mansions of perfect Purity and Bliss.

Yours, &c.

A. B.

MELPOMENE! Muse, no Stranger to me,
Thy Aid (oft refus'd) again I invoke!
Come teach me to mourn, and t' greatly bewail,
Th' Loss we sustain, by so heavy a Stroke!
From Helicon's Top-----all pensive and fair,
Oh! deign t' descend, at thy Suppliant's Call:
O'er WHITEFIELD's Remains, we shed these sad Tears;
Come, come then ye Nine----come, come Muses all!
These Tears, are requir'd alone for ourselves;
For us, so bereft; we demand them each Day---
But WHITEFIELD th' gen'ral Assembly has join'd;
He has valiantly fought thro' his Way!
Unto Mount Zion, he surely is gone,
The Church of the First-born, glorious, on high!
With Sp'rits of just Prophets, perfected there,
Whose Thrones, and whose Joys, are 'bove yonder Sky!
How fast did he press to the new Salem's Gates!
To God th' omnipotent Judge! of us all!
T' Jesus! his Master, whose Smiles he enjoy'd;
And chearfully waited the last gracious Call!
How sweetly dismist from Labours of Love,
He suddenly enter'd th' long wish'd for Rest!
He pray'd with Submission---his Pray'r was heard---
And swift was his Passage to shine with th' Blest.
(Th' Desires of those, who Jehovah! revere,
His own Royal Word, he has pass'd, t' fulfil;
In Pain, or in Ease, in Life, or in Death,
His Rod! and his Staff! supporteth them still.)
Well pleased t' spend---and be spent, for his Lord;
Like Anna of old, (fam'd for Devotion)
In th' Temple of God, he delighted t' dwell;
And zealously sought th' Sinner's Conversion.
Full well, did he know, t' address th' Profane!
Full well, the poor Mourners in Zion, could raise!
All fill'd (in firm Faith) with Peace, and with Joy,
He oft, near expired, with Transports of Praise!
Praise t' that God, who so signally pointed
His Favourite out, to the World's envious Eye:
What Cause now t' mourn, has both Sinner, and Saint,
His early Admission, so near th' Most High!
To Pris'n and Death, he was ready to go;
If thus, for to suffer, his Master had will'd:
No Perils by Sea, or Land, did he fear;
Were but his Commands from high Heav'n, fulfill'd.
Nor th' Frowns of th' World---nor it's tempting soft Smiles---
From th' Path of the Just, cou'd allure, or affright;
In public, and private, he still was the same;
T' talk of the Kingdom! was all his Delight---
Th' Terrors of God, he could set in Array!
And make the bold Sinner abash'd, and afraid!
But yet 'twas his Pleasure t' heal and bind up:
Th' Mercy of Jesus! he sweetly display'd.
From the Redeemer, his Pattern he took;
His Meat and his Drink, was t' finish his Will:
Th' Will of Jehovah! who sent him abroad,
His Pleasure, and Aim, this was, t' fulfil.
Comet like blazing! Majestic he flew!
From City, t' City, with Tidings of Joy!
To spread th' sweet News of Salvation, thro' Christ;
Was still th' Seraphic Soul's constant Employ.
So chearful he walk'd in Wisdom's strait Path---
Painted her Ways so invitingly fair!
That who could behold, without wishing t' tread
In th' same blessed Road? or who could despair?
As little of Sense, of Flesh, did remain,
As possibly could whilst dwelling in Clay:
His Sp'rit exults now, all spotless and bright!
Frailty, and Sorrow, are quite done away---
WHITEFIELD! so burning---so shining a Light!
How could we expect t' be blest with thee long?
This Soul was too gross, for a Sp'rit so pure:
Of th' Lamb! and of Moses thou'rt singing the Song!
Th' World was n't worthy of ought so Angelic!
No more, shall we quake at th' Thunderer's Voice!
No more, a sweet Barnabas listen t' hear!
No more th' sad Heart, shall attend, and rejoice!
All on Tip-toe for Heav'n, th' Seraphim stood!
Thus ready, the Church's great Bridegroom to meet!
Thus ready, to enter th' promised Rest!
Th' Patriarchs! Apostles! and Prophets! t' greet!
Great! great! were th' Conquests, thro' Jesus he won:
His Heart how sincere! his Lips free from Guile---
Yet humble he was, as the new-weaned Babe!
Himself, than the least of all! less; did he stile---
But stop hasty Pen---too hasty indeed---
How couldst thou pretend such Virtue to paint?
Raph'el's fair Pencil it surely requires,
T' portrait this Phœnix! this wonderous Saint!
Th' Troubler of Isr'el's departed in Peace---
Th' Profane, and the Careless, no more he'll molest:
Your Loss, is his Gain; (a Loss you feel not)
In Jesu! compleat, is the heavenly Guest!
The beautiful Clay! methinks, I now see---
With heavenly Peace, and Joy! in it's look;
Th' Spirit had left, and imprinted there there,
Ere it's precipitate Flight it had took.
Tell me, Urania! where, where now he resides?
Too lofty the View, for Urania's sharp Eye!
Th' Muse all abash'd---hides her too feeble Wings---
For ne'er has she soared t' Mansions so high!
Mourn! mourn---deeply mourn, O Church of the Lord!
Whilst militant here, when---when, shalt thou see,
A Pillar so great! so try'd! and so strong!
As this, thou hast lost? as this Cedar Tree!
The Head of the Church! then let us implore!
Th' Spirit's Remainder with Jesu! is left:
O! send an Elisha; supplying th' Place---
Partaking the Graces---of which we're bereft!
The Head of the Church! will guide her, himself!
Thro' Baca's dark Vale; so barren and dry;
T' cool and refreshing sweet Waters he'll lead---
T' Pastures of Comfort reserved on high!
His Sheep, he has promis'd t' gather ere long:
One Shepherd! and Fold! they then shall remain---
Who, who, but must wish, whilst sojourning here;
This Triumph! this Union! this Bliss! t' attain?
Th' Desire of Nations! once more shall appear!
Again his redeem'd, shall lift up their Heads!
With Joy! at th' Sound of his Voice, they shall rise!
Transported, with Joy! leap forth from their Beds!

NEW-YORK, NOVEMBER 5.

Captain Eccleston ſailed from Liverpool in Company with a ſnow, and brig, for this Port, moſtly loaded with dry goods; and we have reaſon to expect in a few days, the arrival of a fail more, from the Ports of London, Briſtol, Liverpool, and Hull, with different ſorts of European goods alſo.

Thurſday laſt arrived here Captain Jenkins, in a brig from London, who has brought over goods for ſeveral merchants in this city.

NOVEMBER 12. Friday laſt arrived here the ſhip Minerva, Captain Reed, in ſix weeks and two days from London, but has brought no papers: It is ſaid ſhe is loaded chiefly with dry goods. She ſailed from the Downs, in company with the London, Capt. Chambers, belonging to this port, who parted with him in ten days after, ſo that he may be hourly expected.

It was expected Captain Munds would ſail from London about a week after Captain Reed, as he was nearly loaded.

The ſame day the Brig Prince George, Captain Finglaſs, arrived here in ſix weeks from Bourdeaux, (in old France) by whom we learn, that they are making great naval preparations at that place; ſeveral ſhips of war were building there; that the workmen in the yards worked double tides in forwarding the ſhips.

PHILADELPHIA, NOVEMBER 15.

Extract of a letter from an Engliſh gentleman at Liſbon, dated October 2.

"We have advice from Braſil, that five ſail of Spaniſh men of war and frigates, with a large ſtore-ſhip, had ſailed in May laſt from Buenos Ayres to diſlodge us from our new ſettlement at Falkland Iſland; this may poſſibly draw on hoſtilities on our part againſt the Spaniards.-----The Ruſſians have had amazing ſucceſs againſt the Turks, which ſeems to give umbrage to France and Spain, and occaſions our ſending ſome ſhips of the line up the Mediterranean."

By letters from Cadiz, of the 10th of September, we learn, that a Spaniſh frigate arrived there from Buenos Ayres the 6th of that month, on which an expreſs was ſent off to the King at Madrid---that in the mean time no perſon was ſuffered to land from her, nor any to go on board, or even along-ſide: It is ſaid ſhe has on board the Engliſh garriſon of Falkland Iſland, in the South Seas, of which the Spaniards have diſpoſſeſſed them.---This no doubt is the foundation for the fitting out the fleet in England, and the hot preſs there, and will very probably terminate in a war between England and Spain.

ANNAPOLIS, (in Maryland) NOVEMBER 1.

In conſequence of the following advertiſement which appeared in the Maryland Gazette, Number 1309.

At a meeting of the Merchants of Baltimore-Town, held at Mr. Little's, the 5th of October, 1770, Mr. JOHN SMITH was unanimouſly choſen Chairman.

On motion, the queſtion was put, whether an advertiſement be publiſhed in the Gazette, requeſting a meeting of a General Committee at Annapolis the 25th inſtant, to judge of the expediency of continuing the aſſociation under the particular circumſtance of the Philadelphia Merchants breaking their; and, that if ſuch a meeting cannot be brought about, that in that caſe the Merchants of this town will look upon the aſſociation diſſolved, and go into a general importation, excepting tea and other dutiable goods?

Reſolved in the affirmative.

"Signed by order of the meeting,

"JOHN SMITH, Chairman.

"In conſequence of the above reſolution, a committee of "four will be appointed to attend at Annapolis the 25th inſtant, "to meet ſuch as may be ſent from the other counties."

Committees from Queen-Ann's, Talbot, and Dorcheſter Counties, ſome Gentlemen of the Council, a conſiderable majority of the Repreſentatives in Aſſembly, ſeveral Merchants of the city of Annapolis, and other Gentlemen from different counties of the province, met at the houſe of Mrs. Middleton, in Annapolis, the 25th of October, 1770.

Mr. JOHN GOLDSBOROUGH in the Chair,

Mr. Jonathan Hudſon, the only perſon attending from Baltimore-Town, produced the following written appointment.

"At a meeting of the MERCHANTS and TRADERS of the "town of Baltimore, this 24th day of October, 1770, Meſſ. "JONATHAN HUDSON, JOHN M'CLURE, JOHN MERRY-"MAN, and JOHN BOYD, OR ANY OF THEM, are appointed "to meet the Committees of the other counties, to CONSIDER "of the expediency of continuing or altering the general aſſocia-"tion of this province.

Signed by

JOHN SMITH,
WILLIAM LUX,
WILLIAM SMITH,
WILLIAM BUCHANAN,
SAMUEL PURVIANCE, jun.
E. MACKIE."

Mr. HUDSON then informed the meeting, "That he is inſtructed by the Merchants and Traders of Baltimore-Town, "who ſigned the appointment, to acquaint the Committees, that "they were determined to depart from the non-importation agree-"ment, and import every kind of goods from Great-Britain, "ſuch only excepted on which duties are, or hereafter may be "impoſed by the Parliament of Great-Britain, notwithſtanding "any reſolutions of this meeting to the contrary, and that HE was "likewiſe inſtructed not to agree to any other terms but to a diſſo-"lution of the aſſociation."

Firſt, Reſolved unanimouſly, That it is the opinion of this meeting, that the Britiſh ſubjects in America have a conſtitutional excluſive right of taxing themſelves in a legiſlative capacity.

Second, Reſolved unanimouſly, That it is the opinion of this meeting, that the non-importation agreement was a neceſſary, prudent, and legal meaſure for obtaining redreſs of the aggrievances of America, and if generally adhered to, would intereſt the Merchants, Traders, and Manufacturers of Great-Britain, in obtaining a repeal of the unconſtitutional revenue-act; would be of great importance, in promoting frugality, induſtry, and manufactures among ourſelves, and the moſt likely means to obtain the deſired end.

Third, Reſolved unanimouſly, That the aſſociation entered into the 22d of June, 1769, be ſtrictly adhered to.

Fourth, Reſolved unanimouſly, That thoſe ſix perſons who ſtile themſelves "the Merchants and Traders of Baltimore-Town," together with Mr. Jonathan Hudſon, who brought and delivered their indecent and inconſiſtent meſſage to this meeting, have by their conduct ſhewn a ſhameful diſregard, as well to their own engagements as to the moſt ſacred rights and liberties of America, and as far as lay in their power endeavoured to deſtroy that union and good faith ſo neceſſary at this, and at all times for the ſafety and conſtitutional rights of theſe colonies.

Fifth, Reſolved unanimouſly, That if the Merchants and Traders of Baltimore-Town, or elſewhere, ſhall depart from the non-importation agreement, We will not (nor ought any other perſon, in our opinion, within this province) buy, take up, or receive any goods whatever from ſuch of them who ſhall by any means break the aſſociation.

Laſtly, Reſolved unanimouſly, That the above reſolutions be printed in the Maryland Gazette and tranſmitted to the ſeveral colonies---And the people of America are hereby intreated and conjured, by all the ſacred rights of Freemen, to join as one man in the rejection of all foreign ſuperfluities, until a total repeal of the injurious and oppreſſive revenue-act takes place.

EDWARD JOYCE, Surgeon,

HIS GREAT

AMERICAN BALSAM:

Extracted from the beſt Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Diſorders, incident to human Nature; proved from Experience in NEW-YORK, LONG-ISLAND, and elſewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balſam, Eſſence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe here, for the ſeveral Diſorders hereafter mentioned.

FOR common green or freſh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dreſſing, by cloſing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balſam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Veſſels are divided, &c. it ſtops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the moſt inveterate Ulcers, only waſh them and keep them clean, uſing firſt if there be any proud Fleſh, a common Cauſtick, to take the Exceſſence away, then apply the Balſam on Lint. If the Ulcers ſhould happen to be fiſtulous, inject by a Syringe, and after cloſe the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balſam, and ſo repeat. There are Witneſſes undeniable of the Balſam alone curing a Fiſtula in Ano, now preſent in New-York:—The Author of this Balſam, (under God) will engage to cure a Fiſtula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Inciſion, except as much by a Lancet to make Way for Injection, and no more. For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breaſt, Inflamation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obſtructed by tough viſcid Phlegm; by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning faſting, and at Night going to bed. It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruiſes, nothing is better, for it ſcatters coagulated Blood, and ſtops Blood that might be occaſioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of Veſſels inwardly. In the Cure of Pleuriſy, after Bleeding, (where it is required) give a Tea-Spoonful three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then Twenty or Thirty Drops of Spirituous Nitre Dulcis, that is the ſweet Spirits of Nitre.—It cures Conſumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they paſs the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a Tea-Spoonful mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Doſe. It ſtrengthens the Nerves, and is good in all nervous Diſorders, by taking of it inwardly, and anointing the Parts outwardly, keeping warm.—☞ The above BALSAM to be SOLD by the Printer hereof.

SUPPLEMENT to the SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE, and COUNTRY JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1770. No. 261. [Printed by CHARLES CROUCH, in Elliott-ſtreet.]

The GENERAL COMMITTEE
Give this Notice to the PUBLIC, That
PHILIP TIDYMAN,
JEWELLER, in BROAD-STREET,
A Subſcriber to the GENERAL RESOLUTIONS,

HATH been detected importing, in a ſecret and clandeſtine Manner, and in direct Violation of his ſolemn Engagement, ſeveral Caſes of Plate, Jewels, and other Goods, to a conſiderable Value, by the Union, Captain Coombes, from LONDON: And having been called before the Committee, on Saturday the 27th Inſtant, to anſwer for the ſame, inſtead of making an ample and ingenuous Confeſſion of his Crime, he obſtinately denied the Fact, until confronted by Capt. Coombes's Mate, who declared he had delivered three Caſes to Mr. Tidyman himſelf, more than were mentioned in the Ship's Mineſeſt, or reported by the ſaid Tidyman to the Committee. The ſaid Tidyman confronted with ſuch Proof, promiſed to deliver up all his Invoices to the Committee; yet ſtill endeavoured to conceal a conſiderable Part thereof; moſt of which has been ſince diſcovered, by ſuch of his original Invoices as he at different Times produced. The Committee however, are perſuaded that the ſaid Tidyman has concealed one of the Caſes, which, probably, may be the moſt valuable: And as, in the whole of this Affair, he has been guilty of the moſt flagrant Falſehood and Deceit, even ſo far as to produce a fictitious Letter, pretending, that certain Articles contained in the ſix Caſes reported in the Manifeſt, were ſent him as a Preſent, from a Kinſman in England; which ſince appear, by his own Invoice, to contain Merchandize, ſhipped by his Order, and for his Accompt.---The Committee therefore, at an extra Meeting, on Monday the 29th Inſtant, required the Attendance of Mr. Tidyman, in order to adviſe him to diſcover and re-ſhip the Whole of the Goods, which he had ſo treacherouſly imported:---But he not attending then, or at a ſubſequent Meeting, and abſolutely refuſing to appear, the Committee think it their Duty to publiſh the ſaid PHILIP TIDYMAN, as an audacious and incorrigible Violator of the General Reſolutions, deſerving the Contempt of every good Man; and it is expected that no Subſcriber will, hereafter, have any Dealings with him, unleſs he ſhall make full Atonement for his late baſe and perfidious Behaviour.

October 30, 1770.

AT a Meeting of the CHURCH-WARDENS and VESTRY, of the Pariſh of St. James, Santee, the following ASSESSMENT was made, for the Relief of the POOR, within the ſaid Pariſh, viz.—NEGROES, 1*s.* 3*d.* per Head—LANDS, 1*s.* 3*d.* per Hundred Acres—And, MONEY AT INTEREST, 7*d.* Half-penny, per Hundred Pounds. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, to all Non-Reſidents, as well as Reſidents, that unleſs they pay the above Rates to either of us, on or before the firſt Monday in January next, Executions will be granted againſt all Defaulters after that Day.
